

BOARD MEMBER COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES

The Terrebonne Parish School Board shall provide an expense allowance and provide for expense reimbursement for its members in accordance with state law. For attending all regular or special meetings, the School Board shall authorize an expense allowance of $800.00 per month for Board Members and $900.00 per month for the School Board President. Additionally, Board Members are authorized to receive the same mileage allowance as provided to state elected officials going to and from the meetings for every meeting of the School Board as well as reimbursement for travel and related expenses outside the School Board's jurisdictional boundaries while on official school business, all in accordance with Board policy.

TRAVEL EXPENSES

Travel expenses of Board Members shall be in accordance with travel regulations established by the Board for staff personnel. Reimbursement for attendance at in-state or out-of-state meetings shall require approval prior to the trip occurring. The Board President shall approve all requests for travel reimbursement for Board Members. Questionable requests shall be presented to the Executive Committee for discussion and action.
